"All's Well" a hilarious English comedy is being staged at the MLR Convention Centre on July 8th

All's Well a hilarious English comedy is being staged at the MLR Convention Centre, J.P. Nagar on July 8th; 7:00p.m., onwards. Tickets are available in denominations of Rs. 150, Rs 200 & Rs. 250.

Play synopsis: The play revolves round the antics of a middle-aged couple, Kapanipathi and Bhageerathi, whose children are grown up and live in distant cities. As they squabble over petty domestic matters, they receive letters from their son and daughter. While the son has written to invite them over to Bombay for the coming Deepavali, their artist-daughter, who has married a Frenchman, announces her desire to bring her husband home.

Bhageerathi sees the visit to Bombay as a long-awaited opportunity to exercise her power as the mother-in-law, while Kapineepathi wants to subject his French son-in-law to the torture he has experienced during his first Deepavali at the in-laws' house. But both of them are in for surprises!!
